

DIGITALE
GESELLSCHAFT

A decorative graphic in the top-left corner of the slide, consisting of several overlapping diagonal lines in shades of grey and green, mimicking the corner of a laptop.

a free and open internet today forms the basis of our democratic society and sustainable economy .

this achievements are at risk, if access and media monopolies and the Internet is used for unrestricted monitoring .

technological progress and the digital networking change our society .

The Digital Society feels committed to the preservation and compliance of fundamental and human rights

Topics

- net neutrality
- against excessive surveillance
- informational self-determination
- censorship
- for modern copyright laws
- for open standards

some of our work

- Tor Servers
- Courses in digital self defence (encryption)
- BAKOM Report on Net Neutrality
- consultation on draft laws
- The life of National Councillor Balthasar Glättli under surveillance
- complaint against data retention
- Swiss Lawful Interception Report & visualization

history and outlook

- 2011 half annual meetings of interested organizations
- 2016 a charitable organization
  - 100 people
  - 20 organizations
- office
- fundraising

Support us

- 75 CHF / year
- Donations can be subtracted on tax form

<https://www.digitale-gesellschaft.ch/ichmachemit>